LEVERAGE

That Is The Tenant's Advantage.

As the largest tenant-only real estate advisory firm, CresaPartners works only for you. Period. Not landlords, not developers, not investors. In fact, we are guided by the industry's only Tenant's Bill of Rights—a clear expression of what you can and should demand from your real estate advisor.

We stand firm in the conviction that every tenant deserves a partner that puts the power and potential back in their hands by leveraging both experience and market knowledge to their advantage.

In more than 125 offices worldwide, CresaPartners teams with businesses of every size, each able to trust that their advisor is committed to Doing the Right Thing. To learn more about CresaPartners and how the Tenant's Bill of Rights shifts the balance of power, visit www.cresapartners.com.

With all due respect to the modern office, it's time for something more than modern.

With the launch of Villa™, Kimball Office is taking lounge seating to a whole new level, and in doing so, opening up entirely new ways to make modern furniture what it should be: highly useful.

Configurable, contemporary, and comfortable (of course), Villa is a tribute to geometric possibility, plus a precise fit for today's varying workplace strategies. The collection's modular components are endlessly rearrangeable, conforming to the needs of a straightforward seating area, or creating an unexpected oasis for impromptu meetings and quick conversations. Or, well—that's entirely up to you. Explore all your opportunities with Villa at www.kimballoffice.com.
